The chairperson of the Compensation Committee will preside at each meeting. The chairperson will approve the agenda for the Compensation Committee's meetings and any member may suggest items for consideration. If a chairperson is not designated or present, an acting chair may be designated by a majority of the Compensation Committee members present. The Compensation Committee may act by unanimous written consent (which may include electronic consent) in lieu of a meeting in accordance with the Company's bylaws.
 - The Compensation Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings and actions by written consent, which minutes and actions will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

- The Compensation Committee may invite to its meetings any director, officer or employee of the Company and such other persons as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Compensation Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities, including non-employee directors who are not members of the Compensation Committee. No Executive Officer may be present during portions of any meeting during which his or her performance and compensation are being deliberated and determined.
2. Reporting to the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee will report regularly to the Board regarding its activities and recommendations.
 3. Authority to Retain Advisors.
 - The Compensation Committee will have the authority, in its sole discretion, to select and retain any compensation consultant, outside legal counsel and such other advisors (each, an “Advisor”) as necessary or appropriate to assist with the execution of its duties and responsibilities as set forth in this charter. The Compensation Committee will set the compensation and oversee the work of any Advisors retained by the Compensation Committee. The Company will provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Compensation Committee, to pay any such Advisor hired by the Compensation Committee and any administrative expenses of the Compensation Committee that the Compensation Committee determines are necessary or appropriate in carrying out its activities. The Compensation Committee will also have the authority, in its sole discretion, to terminate any Advisor.
 - Prior to selecting, retaining and receiving advice from an Advisor (other than the Company’s in-house legal counsel), the Compensation Committee must take into consideration the independence factors set forth in the Nasdaq Rules and the applicable rules of the SEC, as in effect from time to time.
 - The Compensation Committee may retain, or receive advice from, any Advisor it prefers, including Advisors that are not independent, after considering the requisite independence factors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Compensation Committee is not required to assess the independence of any Advisor that acts in a role limited to (i) consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms or operation in favor of Executive Officers or directors and that is generally available to all salaried employees and/or (ii) providing information that is not customized for a particular company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the Advisor, and about which the Advisor does not provide advice.
 - The Compensation Committee shall not be required to implement or act consistently with the advice or recommendations of any Advisor, and the authority granted to the Compensation Committee pursuant to this charter shall not affect the ability or obligation of the Compensation Committee to exercise its own judgment in fulfillment of its duties under this charter.
 - The Compensation Committee will evaluate whether any Advisor retained or to be retained by it has any conflict of interest in accordance with Item 407(e)(3)(iv) of Regulation S-K.
 4. Subcommittees. The Compensation Committee may delegate its authority to subcommittees or individuals, as the Compensation Committee deems appropriate, except to the extent such delegation would violate an applicable tax, corporate or securities law, regulation or rule of any exchange upon which the Company’s securities are then listed. If designated, any subcommittee or other individuals, as applicable, will establish its own schedule and maintain written minutes of its meetings, which minutes will be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board.

5. Compensation. Members of the Compensation Committee will receive such fees, if any, for their service as Compensation Committee members as may be determined by the Board in its sole discretion.
